

K'fé Massai (Lorient)

The name of the restaurant is African; but the food is French- Continental. Recently changed owners - it is even better than it was when it was first opened. Food is wonderful and this restaurant is definitely one to add to your must-go-to-list in St. Bart. Service and the attention to detail was not spared. From the walls, to the lighting colors and down to the specially designed tables and glassware - you can immediately sense that dining here will be different. And the food - it gets top billing here. The restaurant has lots of spaces, there are places to lounge, places to eat, places to drink, and even a place to watch the stars. Located in Lorient in the Oasis center.
